Those who stayed away from the Opera-house last night missed one of the best attractions of the season. "Hello Bill" finds himself in many a close place in the comedy, but his extreme cleverness is equal to every occasion. Mr. Blake-more was a whole show, and with the admirable support he was given made a great hit. Miss Ola Humphrey as leading lady adds much to the strength of the company by her acting.

The Best Promoter.

The carefully prepared and well displayed advertisement is the most successful "promoter." It "sells" more people in one day than the average human promoter can interview in the whole of his professional career. It appeals to the reader directly and convincingly, and catches the trade that could not be influenced by the most eloquent talker. The wise business man employs the most potent agent to strengthen and increase his business.

Frank J. Keenan in "A Poor Relation" at the Opera-House.

After repeated efforts, the Managers of the Opera-house have at last succeeded in securing Sol Smith Russell's great play, "A Poor Relation," and it will be given here on Monday evening.

It is a play in which smiles and tears are closely mingled, dealing in heart interests in such a natural way as to awaken immediate sympathy.

Frank Keenan, who at Mr. Russell's suggestion Manager Berger has engaged to play the part of Noah Vale, has been eminently successful.

In his struggle to preserve his gentlemanly traits while suffering from starvation Mr. Keenan displays talent of a high order in his deft blending of comedy and pathos.

The company is a very superior one, its equal being seldom seen outside of the Broadway theaters, New York City.

"A SPRING CHICKEN."

Our energetic Managers, Russell, Dye and Frank, are to be complimented on the effort to secure the best attractions for Washington Opera-house, and at all times they are straining every nerve to attain that point which means that the best is none too good for our theatergoers. For tomorrow night they have secured that bright and effervescent farce comedy, "A Spring Chicken." This is the best thing that the great farce comedy writer, Mr. Edgar Selden, has ever done. It is full of amusing situations, laughable climaxes, clever comedians, pretty girls and the latest up-to-date music, with specialties by the entire company. Popular prices will prevail. The people of Maysville should appreciate this work of our Managers and show it by a large attendance. Seats now on sale at Nelson's.

For all fresh cuts or wounds, either on the human subject or on animals, Ballard's Snow Liniment is excellent, while for corn-busters' sprained wrists, barbed wire cuts and sores on working horses, it cannot be too highly commended. Price, 25 and 50 cents. J. Jas. Wood & Son.

The Difference in Cost!

Of thoroughly good, fashionable and serviceable clothes and shoes, such as bear "our" label, and inferior goods is not large enough to warrant you taking the risk attached to buying ordinary goods. The kind of clothes we sell are tailored by the same class of journeymen tailors as are employed by high-priced merchant tailors. Not a yard of fabric is used in these garments that has not been thoroughly tested for its textile strength and color fastness; therefore, we thoroughly endorse and guarantee all goods we sell, and say "money refunded" without argument if for any reason you are dissatisfied with your purchase.

Our Experience as Well as Yours!

Has proven that the kind of merchandise we sell is as near perfection as can be, and though they cost a little more than the other kinds, they are really the cheapest kind in the end. Our leaders in clothes are Stein-Bloch Co., Adler Bros. & Co., the best brands in the country.

In Shirts the Manhattan, Hanan Shoes and Stetson Hats

All of these are the highest class of merchandise in their respective lines.

Women's Skirts and Coats

The new fall coats show great variety of style. The best test is becomingness. If a coat is becoming the most important point is settled. Our coats have an air of style that's all their own—that "made for me" look so desirable in ready-to-wear garments. Excellent coats of good material, finish and style for $5. Better ones for $7.50. Handsome jackets of many colors and designs for $10, $12.50, $15, $17.50.

Rainy-Day Skirts!

More and more women are wearing these sensible skirts—not violently short but modestly so—just enough to escape the mud. A comprehensive stock of these utility skirts here—all are heavy suitings or plaid back, so there'll be no flitting to furs at the skirt when wet. Oxford Cheviot $3.50. Heavier quality $5. Plaid Back Goring $5.

Remarkable Fur Values!

The warm season has left fur men with goods instead of cash. Hence their eagerness to sell regardless. We enjoyed a remarkable opportunity for buying good stylish furs below their worth. This evidence—Neck Scarfs of opossum $2.50, of sealote $3.50, of black marten $5, on up to stone marten at $35. Children's Sets—Muff and neck piece of American ermine $13.
